

Which lab panel is right for me?

Both options check your blood, organs, metabolism, hormones, and thyroid so we can stop guessing and build a real plan. The difference is how deep we go.

Option 1 — Essential Lab Panel

$350

Great starting point for most people

Best if you:

- ✓ Want a strong “baseline” of your health
- ✓ Are doing labs here for the first time
- ✓ Don't have a big medical or family history, but don't feel like yourself

Looks at (55–57 biomarkers):

Blood & immune health

- Complete blood count — red cells, white cells, platelets

Metabolism, kidneys & liver

- Full metabolic panel
- Blood sugar control (HbA1c)
- Fasting insulin

Heart health basics

- Cholesterol panel (total, LDL, HDL, triglycerides)

Hormones

- Testosterone (free & total)
- Estradiol
- SHBG

Thyroid basics + antibodies

- TSH, Free T3, Total T4
- Thyroid peroxidase (TPO) antibodies

Men also get:

- PSA (prostate screening)

Women also get:

- FSH, LH, Progesterone

Option 2 — Elite Lab Panel

$750

Deep-dive for stubborn symptoms or long-term optimization

Best if you:

- ✓ Have ongoing fatigue, brain fog, weight, or recovery issues
- ✓ Have a strong family history (heart disease, autoimmune, etc.)
- ✓ Want the most complete picture of your heart, hormones, inflammation, and nutrients

Includes everything in Essential, plus (78 biomarkers total):

Heart & inflammation “early warning” markers

- Apo A-1, Apo B, Lipoprotein(a)
- Homocysteine
- High-sensitivity CRP (CRP-hs)
- Sed rate (inflammation)

Expanded hormones & thyroid

- Cortisol, DHEA-S, IGF-1
- Free T4
- Thyroglobulin antibodies

Vitamins & minerals

- Vitamin B12, Folate
- Ferritin, Iron & TIBC
- Magnesium

Men also get:

- Free PSA, FSH, LH

Women also get:

- DHT (extra hormone insight)

ADD-ON TESTING (OPTIONAL, WITH ANY BLOOD DRAW)

Heavy Metals — Blood: $220

Heavy Metals — Urine: $280

Mold Profile: $200

HOW IT WORKS

1. Your provider helps you choose the panel that fits your goals and history.
2. We draw your blood here in clinic.
3. When results are back, you'll have a follow-up visit to review everything in plain language and get a written plan.
